Ensuring EQUITY for ALL

The University of Arizona is committed to creating and maintaining an environment free of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. It is against the University’s Nondiscrimination and Anti-harassment Policy to discriminate on the basis of: race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or genetic information.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex-based discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual assault.

For more information on what constitutes sex-based discrimination (including but not limited to sexual harassment, sexual violence, and relationship violence), resources and guidance for those affected by sex-based discrimination, complaint options and procedures, and steps that can be taken by the University for the safety of students, please contact the Dean of Students Office, the Office of Institutional Equity, or visit: www.titleix.arizona.edu
